$750,000 MORE SOUGHT

Every Section of State Will

Appropriations

HARRISBURG, Apr. 3.—(INS)— Federal funds support the bulk of the flood control program in Pennsylvania.

Even now, a proposed $28,600,000 allocation for state's flood control work is before congress.

The fact that federal money is welcome is evidenced by the appointment of a committee by the Lehigh Valley Flood Control Council to seek $750,000 more from congress immediately.

According to U. S. Sen. Francis J.
Myers, every section of Pennsylvania will be affected by proposed appropriations.

Among items included in the pending sum, he said, are $4,539-250 for locks and dams on the Ohio and Monongahela rivers, and $13-490,100 for flood control construction work at Conemaugh, Sunbury, Clarion, York and Williamsport.

"No project can be approved unless the benefits achieved will be greater in value than the construction costs," Myers said.

He listed the following congressional steps in issuance of flood control funds:

(1) Authorization for an initial study to determine benefits and costs (2) appropriation of funds for the study (3) authorization of funds for construction (4) appropriation of planning funds and (5) appropriation of construction funds on a yearly basis.

These safeguards against waste explain why necessary projects often take 10 years to complete,"
Myers said.

U. S. Army Engineers have approved plans for additional dams in Pennsylvania, but construction cannot begin until appropriations are made.

Four of the dams and a multiple-purpose reservoir, which would control floods on the West Branch of the Susquehanna river, have been approved for construction at the following sites:

Curwensville dam, 2.5 miles upstream from Curwensville; Kettle Creek dam, 6.7 miles above the mouth of Kettle Creek; Blanchard dam, on Bald Eagle Creek one mile upstream from Blanchard; and First York dam, 7.9 miles above the mouth of Sinnemahoning creek.

The four dams are placed at a

Plans Underway For Male Glee Club Concert

The Male Glee Club of Bristol, which is completing its third year of active singing, has plans well under way for its second May concert. The club presented its first spring concert in Bristol high school auditorium in May, 1948. Last year, because of members participating in a large Easter program, the concert was omitted; but this spring it will be resumed, and presented on May 29th.

The club has as its current president, Andrew MacArthur, of Edgely, and has been directed since its organization by Charles H. Quigley. It has made 20 public appearances during its three years of active work, including two minstrel shows, one concert, and many performances at churches and clubs in Bristol. It has made several appearances in Philadelphia and the group has also sung at Elkins Park and in the communities surrounding Bristol.

This year the club plans to have a rather ambitious program, including such numbers as "The Song of the Vikings," Mozart's "Gloria from the 12th Mass" Bach's "Grant Us To Do With Zeal" and Grieg's "Land Sighting" among its 16 or 17 offerings. There will also be many light and humorous numbers included. It is expected to supplement the program by guest solo artists, both vocal and instrumental from Philadelphia who will make three or four appearances on the program.

The public is invited to keep this concert in mind.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

President Truman has called for a nonpartisan program to ease the dollar shortage and strike a trade balance with other countries high enough to "provide full employment, greater production and higher standards of living" throughout the world. His views were made known yesterday with the release of a letter and memorandum to Gordon Gray, named special Presidential assistant to coordinate the program. The memorandum said we were exporting $16,000,000,000 and importing $19,000,000,000 but the Marshall Plan and other foreign aid programs were paying for $5,000,000,000 of this imbalance. The President sent a special message on farm legislation to Congress.

House leaders, despite Republican charges of "railroading," will try to pass as much of the omnibus money bill as possible before starting a ten-day Easter recess Friday. The Senate is expected to vote Wednesday on a displaced persons bill.

CHARLOTTE LYONS IS WED TO OAKFORD MAN

Resident of Pennel and Take Vows on Sunday

TRIP TO NEW ENGLAND

LANGHORNE, Apr. 3.—With the Rev. N. Herbert Caley officiating at a ceremony in St. James Episcopal Church, here, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, Miss Charlotte Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Lyons, Pennel, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter A. Hilsbos, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Hilsbos, of Oakford.

Throughout the edifice palms were attractively arranged. Vocal solos by Mrs. Raymond Gross were "Because," "O Promise Me" and "At Dawning," her accompanist being Mrs. Harry C. Friedrich.

A floor-length gown of white organdy was worn by the bride, this having an illusion neckline, hoop skirt, with long organdy mitts. Her headpiece, fashioned of organdy, was a bonnet-effect headband, and tied beneath the chin. White carnations formed an old-fashioned bouquet, this having a white rose-bud corsage at the center.

Mrs. John Fripp, attendant of the bride, was attired in a floor-length gown of aqua tone, this having a sweetheart neckline, and full skirt. She wore a pink, artificial rose headband, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of dark pink carnations.

Mr. John D. Berkley was best man for Mr. Hilsbos.

A reception followed at the Lyons residence, with members of the Hilsbos and Lyons families and a few close friends attending. Mr. and Mrs. Hilsbos, who are taking a trip to New England, will reside at Oakford. Mrs. Hilsbos wore for the journey a blue check suit, navy blue hat, blue and white accessories, and a gray topcoat.

Choice of Mrs. Lyons, mother of the bride, for the ceremony, was an aqua afternoon dress, and brown accessories. Mrs. Hilsbos, mother of the bridegroom, chose a navy blue dress.

The bride graduated from Langhorne-Middletown high school, and in June will graduate from the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. The bridegroom is a graduate of Northeast high school, Philadelphia, and is now attending evening classes at Temple University, Philadelphia.

Palm Sunday Fittingly Observed By Worshippers

Churches in this general area were well-filled for Palm Sunday services. Worshippers gathered to hear the special sermons arranged by clergymen for the occasion, and to listen to special cantatas, anthems and solo and group numbers in the many edifices.

The day was observed by some with trips to Philadelphia and New York to attend services of worship in some of the large metropolitan churches. Still other residents went to New Jersey seashore resorts, there to participate in strolls with the thousands on the boardwalks.

Churches were in the main decked in palms and flowers, special arrangements adding to the beauty and impressiveness of the services. At Zion Lutheran Church, the following were confirmed by the pastor, the Rev. Paul H. Gleichman: Frederick Albert Douglas, Jr., Hilda Marie Hamm, Jo Ann Hyde, Barbara Ann Swangler, Elizabeth Jane Taylor, George Timothy Waters, Robert Daniel Waters.

Red Cross Drive Is Extended For A Week

Joining forces in a concerted effort, volunteer workers of the 27 suburban Red Cross branches are doing overtime duty in a special drive to enable the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter to meet its goal in a campaign which has been extended until April 6th.

Blackwell Newhall and Hubert J. Horan, Jr., branch co-chairmen told volunteers attending the campaign's fourth report luncheon at the Warwick Hotel last Thursday, that the branches have reached only 68.3 per cent of their $700,000 goal. It was an 18.1 per cent increase over the previous week.

The overall percentage for the campaign's three divisions was 71.1 per cent, which means that 31.1 per cent must be raised this week if the chapter is to meet its $2,000,000 goal in the five-county area of Philadelphia, Bucks, Chester, Delaware and Montgomery counties.

Bad weather, plus an epidemic of Virus-X among many of the volunteer solicitors, has delayed the progress of the drive, the fund workers were advised. The co-chairmen, however, felt that an all-out push in the extra week of campaigning would enable all drive units to meet their goal.

"We cannot, we must not fail. The thousands who depend on Red Cross when disaster and emergency strike will suffer and that must not happen," Blackwell Newhall and Horan said.

Victor F. Sheronas, drive chairman who announced the campaign's extension said: "I feel confident we can meet our goal. But it will require an all-out effort to reach all the people who have not yet had an opportunity to help Red Cross carry on its 18 services which are so important to so many people in all walks of life."

The Business, Industry and Labor department continued to set the pace among the drive's three units with 75.5 per cent. The city's wards reported reaching 52.7 per cent.

Leadership among the branches shifted for the third straight week when Paoli moved into the top bracket with 94 per cent. Mrs. W. Roberts Cameron is fund chairman. Lower Bucks Branch, with Wilmont Arey, as chairman, has reached 46.3 per cent.

LABOR DEMAND SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Local Conditions Continue To Show Trend For
The Better

PREDICTIONS HOLD

"Labor market conditions in the local area have continued the trend of steady improvement which began with the turn of the new year," according to Francis L. Mathews, manager of the Bristol Office of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service.

"The prediction made last month that employment in 39 selected firms was expected to rise by approximately 1.4% or to a total of about 9,000 employees is more applicable at the present time than it was then. Last month's forecast was made with the qualification that it could be affected adversely by the coal situation.

"During the last two weeks of February this proved to be the case. While no large layoffs materialized because of the coal situation there was the strong possibility that some plants would have to shut down. The settlement of the coal strike came just in time to avert grave possibilities in the Bristol employment picture.

"During the past month unemployment. Compensation claims have dropped by 6.9% and our active applications for work have also dropped by 3.4%. Most of this reduction has occurred within the last two weeks.

"At the present time there are 1,675 applicants for employment registered in the local office many of whom possess a wide variety of skills. Employers are urged to continue their use of the local office in recruiting workers. In this way they are utilizing the largest source of qualified workers available in the area."

Mr. Mathews issued this summary for the news letter of the Bristol Chamber of Commerce.

MONDAY, APRIL 3, 1950
STONE AND SEPULCHRE
Since the dawn of human reason man has seen in the cycle of the seasons a symbol of hope. The return of the sun after a winter of darkness is an immemorial miracle that has kindled the faith of all religions and all creeds. The man who can not see the handiwork of God in the return of life to a dormant earth is a hardened skeptic indeed.

The Christian world bows in solemn reverence as it celebrates the beautiful story of Easter. The risen Saviour stands before an empty tomb. The stone has been rolled away from the sepulchre, and joy cometh in the morning. Life is eternal and enduring and knows no death.

To all the weary and heavy laden of the earth comes the reassurance of Easter. Across the dark centuries comes the voice of One who said: "I am the Resurrection and the Life." Again he stands in their midst and says: "Peace be unto you." And if the words and the story are not enough, man has only to look about at the opening buds, at the earth green again after its long sleep, to sense that there is a Power in the universe that is stronger than the grave.

Each must have his sepulchre, each the stone that bars its door. But the power of the spirit that rolled away the stone in Joseph's garden endures. Beyond the grave there is life, the life of faith and hope triumphant.

SUBS SIGHTED
Alarm over the quantity and quality of Russia's submarine fleet is reminiscent of the gag sailors aboard World War I troopships pulled on their dough-boy passengers. Someone would stick a piece of match against the outer lens of a long spyglass. Thus any U-boat conscious soldier scanning the water would see nothing except periscopes.

Recently Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations, expressed concern before the Senate Appropriations Committee that the Navy's budget for next year didn't allow enough for an augmented anti-sub research and development program. But it is quite obvious that research has been going along at a fair clip.

Proof may be found in the remarks of Rear Admiral C. B. Momsen before an engineering group in Washington. The admiral is one of the Navy's top-flight underwater experts. It was encouraging to hear him say that a new development is "just ahead" that will drive submarines off the seas. Presumably he meant enemy submarines. Presumably, also, he referred to some new kind of underwater detection device.

Coming from a man of Admiral Momsen's stature, this is encouraging news. Such a development would give this nation a tremendous, if temporary, advantage over Russia, whose navy at present comprises more submarines than surface craft.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Sept. 12, 1901. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

Several large tracts were erected last week on the beautiful banks of the Delaware river near China wharf. The camp comprised some of the leading young people of the Edgely Presbyterian Church and Cornwells M. E. Church. The encampment was known as Camp Ely. The young man in whose honor it was named has won an enviable reputation as a long distance field shot and therefore it devolved upon him to furnish the game for the camp, which he did with little trouble. The camp being inadequate to accommodate the guests they were forced to take lodging in Mr. Lorimer's out-buildings, the ladies occupying the second story of the house, and the gentlemen the spring house. . . .

The railways, lands, rights, franchises and property of the Philadelphia and Bristol Passenger Railway Company was sold at public sale by the trustees at noon on Tuesday in front of the Farmers National Bank of Bristol. The single bid was made by George H. But YOU must see CARILLON to understand our enthusiasm—you'll never believe that so much loveliness could be bought at this thrifty price.

Two accidents occurred in front of the Lincoln Drive-In Theatre, Lincoln highway, Bensalem township, at 10:20 last evening. Samuel J. Golub, 32, of Oak Lane, was driving west on Route 1 and in stopping to avoid hitting a pedestrian, was struck in the rear by a car operated by Christopher A. McLewis, Philadelphia. McLewis will be charged with reckless driving, according to police. At about the same time, Lawrence P. Devlin, 41, Philadelphia, struck a pedestrian, John Heenan, 17, of Langhorne R. D. 3. Devlin was driving west on Route 1, and Heenan was attempting to cross from the north to the south side of the highway. He was taken to Nazareth Hospital and treated for abrasions. There was no arrest.

Mrs. Howard Sharp, Linden street, entertained members of the "One of Six" club on Thursday evening. FORD'S THE ONE FINE CAR IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD

(Yet it costs so little to own)

JUDGED "FASHION CAR" OF 1950
Yes, Ford has again been judged "Fashion Car of the Year" by the New York Fashion Academy . . . two years in a row.

SEE FORD DEALER TV
Thursday night—KAY KYSER

THAT'S ALL IT TAKES—10 minutes behind the wheel of a '50 Ford—and you'll realize that quality has invaded the low-price field. Ford's new V-8 power will show you in a matter of seconds why America's costliest cars favor this type of engine. (But in the low-price field only Ford has it.) Yet with all its road-commanding power, this V-8 never raises its voice.

For comfort you'll like Ford's lower, level "Mid Ship" Ride and Sofa-Wide seats. For safety, its 13-way stronger "Lifeguard" Body and 35% easier-acting King Size Brakes. And for your pocketbook's sake you'll be glad to learn you can own even a Ford V-8 for hundreds less than most "sixes" (and Ford's "Six" for even less). Yes, you'll find Ford a sound investment—low in first cost—low in maintenance and low in depreciation.
